CLUB OF BRANDON

Brandon Kiwanis Club Bulletin

Meeting of February 19, 2019

General Business

D'Arcy Barker notes that his telephone number is 204-725-7221. The listed number is no longer in operation.

There was a round of enthusiastic reviews of how well the 100th anniversary dinner went. The committee was copiously thanked for such an excellent job. Frank presented the review of 100 years of our Kiwanis club in Brandon so very well (with David's great technical backup). Lawrence Donald commented that Das Femme didn't have a chance to comment that they have just made a CD with a couple of the songs they performed on the CD and many more. Lawrence has copies at $20 for those who may be interested.

Speaker

Our speaker at the meeting was James Montgomery General Manager of the Riverbank Discovery Centre. He gave a review of some of the developments underway in their 20 year master plan which includes new developments, reconstruction of some features lost in the 2011 flooding and the efforts to mitigate the effects of future floods. A major feature, well underway, is the Festival Park amphitheatre with a bandshell like performance stage and seating for 2500 built into the dyke. Quite a few events are already scheduled for the Festival Park. Other features mentioned were the Sawatzky Sculpture Garden and rebuilding the Assiniboine cove and walks. There was a brief discussion of potential boat launch facilities.

Pictures from the 100th Anniversary Dinner

Hugh took about thirty pictures at the Dinner and showed many on a background slide rotation on the screen at our meeting. Here are just three:
